

Child and Parent Centre Gosnells Newsletter Issue 43.July 2019

Welcome to our August Newsletter,

We had a very busy time over the school holidays from sock puppet making, dress ups, singing with Paige the Possum and cooking up a storm at Little Chefs. We also had a visit from our local Community Engagement Police Officer; Senior Constable Jackie Newby.

Our Parent Blog – Featuring Bridie

My kids and I have been attending the Gosnells CPC for coming up 4 years. Started with baby rhyme time and then playgroup. The kids are always looking forward to coming and seeing all the amazing ladies that work here and all the kids and parents who come.

Playgroup has a huge range of activities for all ages and we are never disappointed.

The Centre for me has been nothing but helpful in so many ways. I never feel like I can't ask for help here. No matter what you need the ladies will do whatever they can or direct you to the right help. Looking forward to many more great years here.
Bridie

If you attend the centre and would like to write the parent blog for our next newsletter please let us know.
