

Child and Parent Centre Gosnells

Newsletter Issue 47. November 2019

Welcome to our November Newsletter,

We are now into the final school term for 2019. Our term 4 program offers lots for families with children transitioning to Kindy in 2020 and we are also working with our local schools on their Kindy Orientation presentations. If you are not at that stage yet we also have our Triple P programs and we are very excited to be offering a music and movement program called Bumblebee Ballet and Boogie.

Looking back, our last school holidays were a blast. The photos speak for themselves. Happy term 4 everyone.

Our Parent Blog – Featuring Ashley

My name is Ashley and I have been coming to the Gosnells Child and Parent Centre since my eldest child Olivia, who is now three and a half years old, started having her newborn checks with the health nurses. Fast forward nearly four years and I am coming to the Centre with Olivia and my new baby son, four month old Jude every chance we have.

Since beginning to use the services at the centre with the health nurses, I have now been to baby rhyme time sessions, playgroups on Wednesdays and Thursdays, school holiday activities, Little Learners program for Olivia and the free weigh in sessions for Jude on Fridays.

Being a stay at home mum has its ups and downs and that is why I enjoy coming down to the Centre- to see the staff and the friends and familiar faces of the parents and children that attend the sessions. Both of my children show that they love coming here, but especially Olivia, who has developed in leaps and bounds and I am lucky enough to be able to watch her confidence and development improve more and more every day that she comes to the centre, starting with a happy greeting each morning to the lovely ladies who make this place amazing.

The staff are incredibly friendly, helpful, accommodating, but most importantly, accepting. I feel like the Gosnells Child and Parent Centre has helped me in more ways than one and I look forward to attending more wonderful things that are organised and to continue with the friendships and comfort that I have found here.
